ENGLISH MOTION
PICTURE ACTRESS
BURNED TO DEATH

Marjorie Lescob, Recently
Come From England, Is Dead Movie Star.

FOUR OTHERS LOSE LIVES

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Five persons were burned to death in a fire which this morning swept through an apartment house on West 57th street, just off Fifth avenue.

The dead included Miss Marjorie Lescob, motion picture actress, recently arrived here from England. A girl known as "Betty," Dr. F. M. Potter, veterinarian of the New York Hippodrome, Mrs. Harold Bothwell, Reid, singer, and Mrs. Jessie Jonkins, her sister, were the others.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—An all night search through the massive piles of masonry that deluged 52nd street at Broadway where a nine-story apartment house collapsed into yesterday failed to establish definitely whether any lives were lost. Six workmen, however, who were members of a wrecking crew, were still unaccounted for and four unclaimed遗物 were still hanging in basement lockers, bare, mute testimony that at least that many persons may have been killed.

The first task today as to dislodge parts of the building still standing that threatened to fall.

QUIET ATTENDS
MILITARY RULE
AT WILLIAMSON

Net an Act of Violence Reported for 36 Hours and Authorities
Are Optimistic.

By Associated Press.

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Dec. 2.—A deputy sheriff will be assigned to each military detachment on duty in the coal strike zone of Mingo county, it was stated at military headquarters here today. This is in line with the policy of Colonel Hall, commanding the provisional battalion, to permit the civil authorities to function as usual.

Thirty-six hours have passed, without the report of an act of violence in the strike zone and civil and military authorities were today frankly optimistic.

It was pointed out, however, that the heavy rain in the period covered had made communication with outlying districts difficult. Roads have become well nigh impassable and telephone communication almost out of the question.

Reports from Freeburn this morning were to the effect that Nathan Bevens, wanted in connection with the killing of William Frances and Everett Dodson, deputy sheriff, at Burnside, was still at large. It was believed he had escaped into the mountains.

The appointment of State Senator William York as major pro tem by the city commission last night was followed today by a general clean-up of Williamson. Many persons designated as undesirable have left the city and those who remained, the new executive said, would be taken into custody.

The streets have been washed down and everywhere cars and wagons may be seen clearing away the accumulated dirt and trash of weeks. It is the policy of Colonel Hall to surround his soldiers with the best of sanitary and moral conditions.

GASOLINE TANK EXPLODES

Resultant Fire at Indiana, Pa., Causes
Loss of $150,000.

By Associated Press.

INDIANA, Pa., Dec. 2.—Fire this morning in the plant of the American Gasoline & Oil company here destroyed the structure with a loss estimated at $150,000. Two men were slightly burned.

The fire, which is believed to have started in a tank, in which was stored several thousand gallons of gasoline, threatened to destroy a number of residences. The tanks of the last few days, however, had saturated the roots and this was a barrier to the flames. The tank in which the gasoline was stored exploded, causing the flames to spread like a fan.

COVENANT STANDS

No Changes Before Next Meeting of Assembly is Decided.

By Associated Press.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 2.—A resolution respecting the consideration of amendments to the League of Nations covenant at this session and providing for a committee to study changes before the meeting of the next assembly was passed by the assembly of the league at today's session with but one dissenting vote.

HARD COAL PRICE PROBE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Senate investigation into the prices of anthracite coal will begin in New York Saturday, it was announced today by Senator Carter, chairman of the Senate committee of inquiry. Senator Calder said New England governors had requested the investigation.

D'ANNUNZIO'S WAR
DECLARATION NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY

All Travel Into and Out of Flume Under Drastic Restrictions; All Persons Searched.

By Associated Press.

TRIESTE, Dec. 2.—Declaration of a state of war with Italy beginning Friday morning, which was made yesterday by Captain D'Annunzio, is not regarded seriously by military commanders here. There is warlike activity in Flume and the sound of cannon and rifle may be heard along the Gulf of Quarnero.

All travel in and out of Flume has been placed under restriction and baggage is being searched for arms, while closest watch is being kept of refugees who seek to take firearms into the city. Propaganda, letters and money also are being sought. Trains leaving Flume are held up for hours at the frontier.

NO ONE TO PROSECUTE

Therefore Three Young Men in Lock-up May Go Free.

The three local young men, Edward McCarlson, Victor Mossely and David Solason, arrested by Patrolman V. Bert Ritchie on charges of having committed many of the recent robberies in this city are still in the city lockup awaiting some disposition of their cases.

It had not been determined today what action would be taken. Although the youths have admitted their guilt to Ritchie, persons whom they have robbed refuse to enter prosecutions. The officer has visited at least a dozen persons who have been the victims of the activities of the young men, but none desires to make an information against them.

Added forces have been enrolled by all the stores, some of the extra clerks already being at work, while others, members of the upper classes at the high school, are working on Saturdays until the close of the holidays.

"Do your Christmas Shopping Early" is again the slogan of merchants and all advertisements carry that caption. Buyers are showing conservatism in their selection of articles, preferring to take useful gifts, rather than the ornamental.

Out of town patrons are those who are really getting their buying done early. There is a great deal of inconvenience when a person waits until the last week and has to travel crowded cars, especially when carrying an armful of bundles. Those who make this city their shopping headquarters are seen every day boarding the trolleys with bundles, undoubtedly bought for Christmas, in their baskets and bags.

FRICK TAX PAID

Allegany Register Turns Over $2,
000,000 to State.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 2.—William Conner, register of wills of Allegany county, Wednesday paid into the state treasury $2,000,000 in partial settlement of the estate of Henry C. Frick. With the exception of $44,000, which represented district inheritance tax, the remainder was transfer inheritance tax.

The sum of $37,000,000 of the estate still in contest and the payment made by the register was subject to the final disposition of the case.

NO TRACE OF GIN

Local Police Not Informed of the Theft of Liquor.

No new developments have been announced in the disappearance of two barrels of gin, taken from the warehouse of the Connellsville distillery in East Apple street early Tuesday morning.

The robbery was not reported to the police department and the civil officers evidently are to have nothing to do with the investigation.

Rain Brings River Up.

The rain of yesterday was rather heavy in the mountains, the rise in the river would make the woods anything but pleasant for those who went deer hunting. The Youghiogheny river rose from 3.40 feet to 4.65 feet.

Mrs. Wallace Returning.

James Wallace will leave this evening for New York to meet his mother, Mrs. Catherine Wallace, who is expected to arrive there Saturday on the steamship Rotterdam after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Zita Salmon, in Paris.

PENNY TRAINS ON TIME.

Figures of passenger train performances for the first 30 days in November just compiled by the Pennsylvania railroad show that out of the 42,231 passenger trains operated, 35,403, or 83.9 per cent, were run on time, and 32,111, or 92.4 per cent, made punctual time.

NEW LICENSE PLATES OUT.

The first of the 1921 Pennsylvania automobile license tags were seen in the city streets today. The tags have a yellow background and large black numerals stand out prominently. The figures are divided by a dash along the same style as those for this year.

SELL LIQUOR, ARRESTED.

Given a hearing last night before Alderman Fred Munk on a charge of selling liquor without a license, Frank Gancera was held for court. Four or five witnesses testified that wine was sold at $2 per quart. Constable B. Rottler was the prosecutor.

INCREASED SALES
MARKS PROXIMITY OF XMAS SEASON

Merchants Already Find Business Heavier; Extra Clerks Are Being Put On.

22 SHOPPING DAYS YET

With only 22 more days until Christmas, there is already a noticeable increase in the buying at local stores.

While this increase has not yet reached the proportions it is expected to attain in the next two weeks, the Christmas shopping is undoubtedly the cause of the added number of purchases.

Every day sees additional display windows undergoing a retrimming with the bright Christmas colors as a background. The larger stores have filled big windows with toys and the areas around these windows have become the stamping grounds of the youngsters. Other windows, in practically every store, have "Christmases Suggestions."

Another week and the first of the pines to be sold for Christmas trees will be coming in. Many of those went unsold last season because of the extremely high prices asked for them and it is not expected that there will be a repetition of this.

The young folks, those who really like the Christmas spirit alive, are already writing letters to "Santa Claus," telling of their London wishes and many fathers and mothers are finding it easier for their boys and girls to be better youngsters at this time of the year than at any other period.

Added forces have been enrolled by all the stores, some of the extra clerks already being at work, while others, members of the upper classes at the high school, are working on Saturdays until the close of the holidays.

"Do your Christmas Shopping Early" is again the slogan of merchants and all advertisements carry that caption. Buyers are showing conservatism in their selection of articles, preferring to take useful gifts, rather than the ornamental.

Along the features of the "Polka" will be a regular roof garden scene with all the pomp and glory of the famous metropolitan sky parlors. Dances by real artists, songs that are full of pep and harmony, comedy sketches by the city's best minstrels, real jazz music as well as the soothing variety and all interlaced in a manner that will be most pleasing and bound to win the highest praise.

There will be no repetition of old-time sketches, but everything is to be entirely new, up-to-date, is the promise.

Turnouts at the rehearsals have been very gratifying and the spirit shown is taken as proof that all will be well on the big night. There will be no rehearsal tonight in the Elks' Home. Beginning next week there will be two rehearsals a week.

The Elks is the first organization to make a contribution in the hospital campaign and it is expected that other fraternal and civic organizations will take similar action at meetings prior to the closing of the campaign.

BREAD PRICE DROPS.

A local baking company has announced a reduction in the price of bread. The pound and a quarter loaves have been cut from 12½ cents to 11½ cents and cinnamon rolls and yeast sweet rolls from 17½ cents to 16½ cents. Puffin and hotel or restaurant buns have been cut from 30 to 27 cents.

LATROBE MAN PAYS
ELECTION BET BY ENLISTING IN ARMY

By Associated Press.

MARION, O., Dec. 2.—An election bet was paid here when Clarence H. Burke of Latrobe, Pa., enlisted in the Army. Burke bet his brother that if Senator Harding proved the successful candidate for President he would enlist for three years. If Governor Cox were elected his brother was to enlist in the Navy for four years.

"FOLLIES" WILL BE "DIFFERENT,"
DIRECTOR SAYS

Best of Talent and Everything
New is Promised For Legion Minstrel.

WILL REHEARSE TONIGHT

Something decidedly "different" in the promise of the promoters of "Legion Follies" to be presented at the Soisson theatre the early part of January under the auspices of Milton Bishop Post, The American Legion.

The people of Connellsville will have the chance of a lifetime to witness one of the most brilliant home talent productions ever staged in any community," says the announcement. "Nothing, to the minute detail, has been overlooked on the part of Director John R. Brown to make a complete success of the entire performance and those buying tickets will not only be helping a good cause but will receive every cent of their money's worth in the enjoyment that will be had."

There will be no repetition of old-time sketches, but everything is to be entirely new, up-to-date, is the promise.

BASKETBALL CANDIDATES HOLD LIVELY SCRIMMAGE; 30 MEN REPORT TO RUPP

Coach Has Many Men From Which to Make Selections For His Varsity Team.

INDEPENDENTS TO PLAY

The first good scrummage between the basketball candidates trying out for the Connellsville High varsity took place at the gym yesterday afternoon. Coach Rupp outlined his principles of offense and defense. He is already finding out that he will not have the same difficulty encountered on the football field—that of teaching the game to green or almost green recruits. The fundamental points of the game have been well drilled into the boys by C. J. Alderter, former coach who is not with the high school here this season.

"Summer" Neid, who showed a fast of speed and aroused enough interest in fans to make them wait in anticipation of this season to watch the full development, is out at center. Neid didn't break into the game until just before the close of the season last year. Since then he has grown considerably and should be able to hold his job down with the best of opponents.

CASEY CLUB AND ARMY
TEAM TO OPEN SEASON

Basketball season in Connellsville will be opened tomorrow night when the Casey club and the Army club teams will clash at the armory. The American Legion and Unity Fraternity teams are not in the first stages of formation. Lack of playing floors of reasonable price is given as the reason.

BETHANY COLLEGE FOOTBALL TEAM GOES THROUGH TONIGHT

The Bethany College football team, which has created quite a stir in football circles this season for a small school, will go through this city to-night at midnight on Baltimore & Ohio Train No. 10 enroute to Washington, D. C., where the post season game with Georgetown University will be played on Saturday.

The post season meeting of the two teams is of more than usual interest here as Connellsville boys play on both teams. At Bethany are Randolph and McCardle; at Georgetown are Leighty, Simons and Duggan.

The Casey and Army clubs are proving the basketball lid off a little earlier than usual for the independent games.

High school will not appear before the public until December 11. Germantown township will be here that night.

THREE CARDS WILL DRAW BIG CROWDS TO FIGHT

The Fayette A. C. show on Saturday night at the Slavish hall promises to be a hummer as far as attendance goes. Trotter will turn out in force to see Jim McMahon. In his bout with Pollock, Johnny, as usual, will have Dawson and Vanderbilt at the ringside to see him perform. Piazza will carry the city and vicinity for his rooters, while Uniontown will back up Mike Moran, Piazza's opponent. Mike has a host of followers at the county seat.

The crew of Porkin from Dunbar, Lemont, Mount Braddock and the Lehighings will have choice seats to see the former pit boy, Mickey, display his ring craft. Charley Dunn will bring them from Scottsdale and the entire surrounding counties to watch his Mayo punch in action.

Both Dunn and Porkins claim they will each win by the knockout route. On a par in interest to the stay bout is the six-round encounter between Jim McMahon of Trotter and Johnny Pollock of Dawson.

THROW OUT CROOKED RIDERS

Stewards of New York Jockey Club Deny Licenses to Several Jockeys and Trainers.

It is understood on good authority that the stewards of the Jockey Club of New York have practically decided to deny the applications of several well-known riders for a renewal of their licenses in 1925. This action will be taken, it is said, as a result of a careful investigation of certain methods that have prevailed on the tracks since the opening of the present campaign. Collusion between conspiring operators and trainers who have been able to induce unscrupulous riders, has been suspected for some time. As a natural sequence, the stewards are determined to "clean house" in the interest of the racing public.

Last winter a number of prominent riders found themselves under the ban. No reasons for their elimination were made public, yet they have refrained from resorting to legal proceedings in order to get back. When more riders and trainers join those in seclusion, therefore, the patrons of racing will applaud the Jockey Club's stewards for sincerely trying to protect them.

While the General Readjustment of Industry Continues to Progress.

WILD BREAKS PREVENTED

And Market Kept Free of a Coke Flood By Adherence to the Policy of Holding Production Within Limits of Demand; Danger Line of Cost Neared.

From The Weekly Courier
The attitude of the coke producers with respect to the trade situation cannot be said to be one of indifference, but it is perhaps more correct to say that they have taken a calm philosophical view. Aware as they are of the readjustment that is progressing it is not part of their purpose or plan to resist the process but to go along, meantime retaining such a grasp upon the situation as will best conserve the interests of the industry as a whole.

For this reason they early adopted and have since steadfastly pursued a policy of preventing over production while at the same time striving to adequately meet the needs of consumers and the changing conditions of the market. In these respects the efforts have been successful. There has been no wild break in the market notwithstanding the very considerable drop from the high to present range. The market has not been flooded with coke but in an orderly and well regulated way the region has adapted itself to the changes while at the same time maintaining its equilibrium. Being positioned to further curtail or increase output on short notice according as conditions may require.

While the price for spot coke has been approaching the present level of $7.50 to $8.00 over activity has been augmented by larger shipments of raw coal. As the ratio between coke and coal prices has been successively disturbed the tendency has been to still further lessen coke production and where possible, to increase coal shipments. As the margin between coal and coal lessens, and the price of coal falls off, there is a natural approach to no lead line of production costs. The present close proximity of the two is creating an alarm. Instead, the producers are viewing the situation with equanimity, having reached the conclusion that when the margin between cost of production and realized price ceases to be discernible, they will derive more profit from allowing their coke to remain unmixed and uncocked than from shipping it in either its raw or manufactured state.

Largely because of this attitude the coke region continues to go along calmly from week to week undisturbed by the prospect of still further reduction in price or lessening of demand, and without material change in operating conditions. Last week the production showed a gain of 12,000 tons, but all at the plants of the furnace interests. Merchant production, showing practically the same as during the preceding week, with more furnaces going out of blast, and iron and steel mills showing no betterment, the prospects are that a further curtailment in coke production will take place this week. The softening of the coal market to $8.75-$9.00 has to some extent had its reflex in coke, the increase in the price for spot furnace having been 50 cents since the last review of the trade. At the season of the year there always exists the possibility of a sudden and severe cold snap to stimulate the fuel trade, in which case coke is a beneficiary, as well as coal. But viewing the situation broadly, and disregarding local or incidental influences, it appears to the best posted observers that the trade is due for a more or less featureless period while the general readjustment of industry is in progress.

The estimated production of coke during the week ended Saturday, November 27, was 312,420 tons, credited to the two districts in the following proportions: Connellsville, 136,110, a gain of 13,610 tons; Lower Connellsville, 82,310, a decrease of 1,650 tons, or a net gain of 12,060 tons, as compared with a decrease of 1,450 tons during the week preceding.

By interests the production was: Furnaces, 138,830, a gain of 11,955 tons; merchant, 74,540, a loss of 95 tons, as compared with decreases of 1,305 and 146 tons during the week ended November 26.

There was a reduction of 85 in the number of ovens in blast, 65 by the furnace and 19 by the merchant interests. The 50 active ovens at the Martin plant were blown out.

I. C. C.'S POWERS

To Decide State Rates Discriminatory Is To Be Tested in Courts.

Decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission that fares within New York state must be increased to the level of interstate ones in eastern territory has no direct effect upon freight, as the New York state commission advanced interstate freight rates the 40 per cent requested last August. The decision, though, does point the way in more than a score of states which have balked at part or all of the freight rates asked in interstate rates.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has assumed the power to declare all rates within a state discriminatory to interstate rates. It is felt that the power of the commission will be tested in the courts, before the winter is finally determined, and the New York case probably will be the one speeded through the courts. One of the 10 members now sitting on the commission dissented from the majority's opinion that the commission can declare state rates discriminatory.

INDEPENDENTS NOW GENERALLY ON U. S. STEEL PRICE BASIS

But Reductions Have Not Brought Out Any Important Business; Market for Sheets Still Declining.

Special to The Weekly Courier
NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The American Metal Market and Daily Iron & Steel Report will review the steel and iron trade tomorrow as follows:

The independent market on bars, shapes and plates had a vastly easier month than was expected. It quickly expired last Friday when several independents announced the United States Steel Corporation prices of 25c for bars, 24c for shapes and 24c for plates. Not all independents have formally reduced their prices, but that is not a factor in making the market since those who have reduced remark that the reductions have not brought out any important business.

They are well able to book more business than the trade offers.

The following was followed on Monday by announcement by at least one large wire producer of adoption of the United States Steel Corporation prices on wire products, 8c for plain wire and 8c for nail. While official announcements have not come from all other wire makers the sellers at the United States Steel Corporation's Industrial Board prices experience no difficulty in taking care of the market demand. In somewhat similar manner cold finished steel bars have declined from 4c to 3.5c, which may be regarded as the Industrial Board price.

Of the important finished steel products sheets and pipe alone remain as presenting an independent price above the United States Steel Corporation or Industrial Board level. Pipe is going very strong with the independents on their 5c per cent list as against the 5.5c per cent list of the United States Steel Corporation, and premiums above the 5c per cent list have not disappeared.

The independent market on sheets, on the other hand, has been declining more rapidly than formerly and is now only $10 a ton above the corporation level. Thursday December 2, the American Sheet & Tin Plate company will formally open its order books for the new period, at its regular prices of 3.5c for blue annealed, 4.5c for black and 5.75c for galvanized sheets and 7.00 for tin plate. About three months of business will be carried over the allotments and will practically be for the second quarter.

Valley Bessemer and basic have declined $2.50 and $2 respectively.

QUARANTINE OF RED PLAGUE VICTIMS ONLY WHEN PUBLIC MENACE

Regulations of State Department of Health hydraulic in Statement by Dr. Leon Gans.

Special to The Courier.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 2.—Quarantine of cases of venereal infection will not be made by boards of health throughout the state, except where the character, occupation or neglect of those infected make them public health menaces.

This statement was made today by Dr. Leon Gans, chief of the genito-urinary division of the State Health Department.

The department through local boards of health, has been conducting an intensive fight against "social diseases" in an effort to lower the number of infections in the state and wipe out all sources of possible infection.

Recent activities on the part of the department in quarantining houses occupied by persons suffering from venereal diseases, when necessary to safeguard the community, have caused a falling off of applications for treatment at the 20 venereal clinics established by the Pennsylvania State Health Department, according to Dr. Gans.

The same quarantine regulations used in smallpox now apply to venereal cases where there is danger of infection. This is given as a reason for the decrease.

Dr. Gans declared, however, that no patient applying to a state clinic, a hospital clinic, or a physician for treatment will be quarantined.

"The disease can be acquired innocently and the quarantine precautions," he explained, "have been taken to protect the general public health."

FIERY, ITCHY ECZEMA HEALED RIGHT UP BY APPLYING SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itchy eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Menthol-Sulphur. A noted skin specialist because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema, light up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little of Menthol-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream—Ad.

EMBLEM ADOPTED FOR SCOTTDALE BUT SLOGAN UNDECIDED

Dorothy Miller, Chestnut Street, Awarded $5 for Emblem Idea.

SLOGAN CONTEST IS CONTINUED

Time Extended to December 24 and is Open to All Persons of Town and Community; Women of Reformed Church Form Missionary Body.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTTDALE, Dec. 2.—The chamber of commerce, through Wifred H. Keon, chairman of the slogan and emblem committee, has awarded $5 in gold to Dorothy Miller of 610 North Chestnut street for the best suggestion for an emblem for Scottsdale.

Of the slogans none offered was considered suitable so that the time for choosing a slogan is not only open to school children of Scottsdale and community, but that every man, woman and child may be a contestant.

The price will be $5 in gold.

Mrs. Miller, the winner of the prize for the emblem, is a daughter of Mrs. J. P. R. Miller and is 16 years old. "Scottdale, the Home of Industry," stands out prominently in the sketch submitted by Miss Miller, against a background picturing the mills for which the town is noted in full operation as indicated by the volumes of smoke pouring from their stacks. To one side is a church, indicating also that the town is also one of religious endeavor.

Missionary Society Organized.

On Tuesday evening the young ladies of Trinity Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. Clayton Uber, Spring street, and organized an auxiliary to the Women's Missionary society of the church. Eighteen were present. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Eva King; vice president, Mrs. Martha Workman; secretary, Miss Ethel Shively; treasurer, Mrs. Clayton Uber. After the organization and the business session refreshments were served.

Water Office Moved.

The Citizens Water company has moved its offices from the Pittsburg street building to the first floor of the building in Spring street built by Jesse S. Cook for the water company offices and the Western Union Telegraph company. No glass has been put in the windows yet, but the water company is using the offices with a light burning and the windows boarded up.

THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 2, 1926.

THEN AND NOW.
Changes in Women's Dances and Other Things.
Reminiscences of Dr. S. J. S. Swallow.

Now, no more linsey-woolsey, made on the spinning wheel and loomed in one corner of the spacious kitchen, but silk and satins, broadcloths and brocades, tricotties and tricotines and a trick a woman! gingham and tweeds, serges and poplins, velvets and velours, ad valorem! ad libitum! a plumbus unum! Then Paris did not dominate the half-worn clothes and soiled hats and bonnets, and their slightly faded roses, and revel in the glow of their newly-bloomed morning glories. Yes, and even America's factory, kitchen and clerks girls dance to the new Parisian tune. True, many of them cannot secure the sensibilities they desire, and are compelled to dress only from the tips of their shoulders to their calves. Time was when multpled undercoats and skirts and wire-woven hoops adorned the pedal extremities of the fair sex. Now, in some cases, both limbs of the dear sisters are thrust into one pant leg only a size or two larger than a navy boy's single-leg pant; and the wearer must confine her cat-step to a distance of from six to 12 inches and take four steps to the male escort's one step. Many of the stores have no other kind to sell and she becomes the victim of Parisian folly.

Then, 50 years ago, fat shoe heels, and shoe too, with latitude and longitude sufficient to permit foot expansion, and ability to walk as does the average English woman, 20 or more miles a day. Now heels of from three to four inches high, with earth compact at the bottom (ofteh heel) the size of a nickel, the familiar foot pitching forward at an angle of about 45 degrees. Most of the shoe stores have no other kind.

Of course, this fashion enables the wearer to always be walking down hill, even on the level, pavement, or on an incline, and thus her distance capacity to a quarter or half a mile, or till she can get to the chippodist, which is the polite name for the corn doctor. Or the chiropract supposed by some to be identical with the osteopath. It is his province for an adequate money consideration to rub the kinks out of the shoe-tortured muscles.

Once Paris said, "hore sare, ladies!" and we obeyed. Then, "hair covered ears, ladies!" and we obeyed. "And now, November, 1926, "half-covered ears, American ladies!" and it is done; and earth's long-earred, two-legged male mule "He, Haw!" for further revelations.

When a boy we were content to get our chewing gum from a defunct pine stump. Now the world's multituded factories produce a substitute salved at one hundred million dollars a year; and the jaws of men, women and children wag constantly in public and private, on the street, in the car, the home, the church, the Sunday school and at funerals; and some conjecture that from sheer force of habit some jaws will continue to wag in the grave.

Discarded on the street or in the park, the gum gums our very soles, which unwittingly carries the well-masticated fifth and its material adherents onto the domestic floor or carpet, emphasizing the necessity for semianual house cleaning, regarded as a delight to womanhood, but as an awful blight to manhood.

To change the subject a little, once for amusement, our young folks had the stately square dance. Now its amusements are largely copied from Paris and the lower animals as they gratify their brutal instincts, and the modern names correspond, such as "the turkey trot," "grizzly bear," the "fox trot," the "bunny hug" and the "shimmy grab."

And now the bunny-buggers and shamus-grabbers have given notice to the Methodist General Conference and to all other anti-bunny-hugging denominations that if they do not cease their opposition the hoggers will boycott these denoucements. For which we should shout hallelujah! and sing "Praise God from whom All Blessings Flow."

But to change the subject again with the ushering in of woman's citizenship in America by which 20,000,000 of our mothers, wives and sisters have been given the ballot, after a 50-year fight for it by the Prohibition party, there should be a moral revolution, and all women, as do most women, should find some better, more intelligent, more rational, more patriotic, more pietistic method of attracting men than through the exposure of their bare, or transparently clad phys-iques. And every pulpit in the land should sound the alarm against the prevailing indecency, and the harm it is bringing to American life. It is to be ardently hoped, that the time will come in the history of our 105,000,000 population, when as much attention will be given to the matching of men and women as husbands and wives, and the producing and training of boy and girl babies, as for years have been given to matching and hatching high-bred dogs and cats, horses, cows and chickens. Surely as much attention should be given to raising boys as to raising Guernsey or Jersey or Holstein cattle or Elliot horses, or Chester White or Borkshire pigs, or prime pork.

Nevertheless we believe that in spite of all our fears, in the main the world is growing better, though yet not as God wants it. Look at a proof or two. Now a wife is not a chattel, as she once was, to her husband. She may spend her own earnings and share with her husband the guardianship of her children and the citizenship of the town, the state and the nation. It was not always thus. Child slave labor is modified, criminals are no longer crucified or impaled or disemboweled or buried alive, nor are they put to death for forgery or for stealing five shillings or more, as they once were. No prosecution now for heresy, witchcraft or religious non-conformity. Slavery has been abolished for all time, at least from China and bondage to the liquor mongers is going everywhere. Liberality and charity are more dominant and widespread. The full feed the hungry, the clothed care for the naked, the wise school the ignorant and America extends the open palm to all peoples.

Now, no more linsey-woolsey, made on the spinning wheel and loomed in one corner of the spacious kitchen, but silk and satins, broadcloths and brocades, tricotties and tricotines and a trick a woman! gingham and tweeds, serges and poplins, velvets and velours, ad valorem! ad libitum! a plumbus unum! Then Paris did not dominate the half-worn clothes and soiled hats and bonnets, and their slightly faded roses, and revel in the glow of their newly-bloomed morning glories. Yes, and even America's factory, kitchen and clerks girls dance to the new Parisian tune. True, many of them cannot secure the sensibilities they desire, and are compelled to dress only from the tips of their shoulders to their calves.

At the Theatres

THE ORPHEUM.

GETTING MARY MARRIED—An unusually entertaining picture starring Marion Davies, supported by an all-star cast, and an episode of "Ruth of the Rockies," featuring Ruth Roland, are being presented today. "Getting Mary Married" is a picture of fascinating plot. The settings are especially beautiful and the picture is sure to please all patrons of the theatre.

Tomorrow and Saturday morning Talmadge, supported by Constance Talmadge and other well-known players, will be seen in "The Way of a Woman," a picture which affords Miss Talmadge an opportunity to wear many wonderful gowns, hats and wraps.

"Nancy Lee," the heroine of "The Way of a Woman," shows that it is the truest, the finest way. After she gives up the man she loves to marry another, for his money, she is beset by a complication of troubles. Her honesty of heart and fitness of soul win out in the end, however, and convince her real lover that his doubts of her are groundless. The picture was adapted from Eugene Walter's stage success, "Nancy Lee."

THE PARAMOUNT.

THE SECRET GIFT—A photoplay without a hero, heroine or villain, featuring Lee Kohlmar and Rudolph Christians, stars of the dramatic stage, and a splendid comedy are being shown today. The characters of "The Secret Gift" are simple, lovable everyday humans. There is old Jan Saxe himself, dreaming of his romance as he lingers away at some delicate mechanism he has promised "tomorrow at five, sure." There is Peter Harlingen, his comrade of the steamer voyage, who has risen to wealth in America. There is Peter's lovely daughter, and the young ward-boss who meets her and loves above his station. There is the beetle-browed banker, Ahlman, and his weak-minded son. There is but to enumerate them is no more than to call by name the beloved friends of "The Old Curiosity Shop" or of "David Copperfield." We must know them to love them.

THE SOISSON.

THE LOVE EXPERT—With Constance Talmadge, supported by H. Natalie Talmadge, the third of the famous Talmadge sisters, John Halliday and others, is the leading attraction today and will also be presented tomorrow and Saturday. Babs is sent home from boarding school because she persists in carrying on her fanciful love researches. Instead of studying her lessons, continuing these experiments at home, her father, the indulgent and stern Mr. Hardcastle, punishes Babs by sending her to Aunt Cornelius in Boston instead of taking her to Palm Beach. Aunt Cornelius has for six years been engaged to the handsome Jim Winthrop, Hardcastle's Boston manager, but a wedding is remote as Jim has two unmarried sisters and an elderly aunt to look out for. Something had to be done, and it was Babs who did it by means of a fake telegram which results in her going to Palm Beach with her troupe of Bostonians, to the amazement of her father. Then comes the news from Boston that Aunt Cornelius, who had been left behind, had married a college professor. This news does not break Jim Winthrop's heart, for the "love expert" uses some of her unflinching remedies.

SHE HAD COUGH FOR TWO YEARS

Was Unable to Check It, Finally Heard About Hypo-Cod.

NEW TONIC GAVE HER QUICK RELIEF

Mrs. G. W. Long, 4078 Hawley street, Pittsburgh, had a bad cough for two years and try as she would, she couldn't check it and had become very much run-down when luckily a friend recommended Earle's Hypo-Cod. Mrs. Long started taking it immediately and the cough was helped from the very start. It was helped to take right hold and it built her up too. She declares it is a wonderful remedy for anybody who isn't up to standard in health or has a cough. Tens of thousands of other people in Pittsburgh and nearby towns praise Hypo-Cod. Just think of it—Over 25,000 bottles were sold in the first few months after it was introduced. Drugists state people simply will not be bothered with weaker old fashioned tonics when thought this preparation costs more than other tonics per bottle. It does its work days and weeks sooner. It seems to agree with people's stomach better and results are what count after all anyhow. Drop in at the drug store tonight and take home a bottle with you and see how quickly and quickly it does the work. Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by all good druggists and the leading druggists in all nearby towns.—Adv.

TOWN SITE

Planned by H. C. Frick Coke Company for the Dilworth Plant, Greene Co.

It is understood that the H. C. Frick Coke company has taken options on about 500 acres of land lying between Rice's Landing and the Dilworth mine, Greene county, for the purpose of providing a town site and the surface opening of a manway leading to the mine workings.

Since the purchase of this mine a few years ago the Frick company has made extensive improvements and greatly enlarged the productive capacity. The output is shipped as raw coal to the by-product plant at Clayside.

Avoid Diphtheria

A good throat is a good breeding place for Diphtheria germs. Protect your children never neglecting a Sore Throat. You can wisely depend upon TONSILINE. Give TONSILINE upon the first appearance of Sore Throat—don't give Diphtheria a chance that throat in its weakened condition. When TONSILINE is swallowed it comes directly in contact with the diseased surface and induces a local contraction which can better defend the throat if attacked by Diphtheria germs.

Keep TONSILINE in the house where you can get it quick when needed. $5c, 50c and $1.00.
